

Another New Norcross Business Opening! ZAXBY'S

SLW

Norcross, GA- December 7, 2014- City of Norcross Mayor, Bucky Johnson, welcomed a new member to our business family, Zaxby's, during an evening opening reception.

Interaction with City of Norcross staff in preparation for this grand opening "rates high," according to new owner, Dan McClure. Reciprocal kudos for the food, presentation and hospitality of the Zaxby's team was given by City of Norcross and Chamber staff.

This week, Zaxby's "hatched" its latest state-of-the-art store with a new Jimmy Carter Blvd. addition, providing cooked-to-order, hot, fresh food- which includes, wings, "Zappatzers", sandwiches, "Zalads," and premium milkshakes.

Although the official "Grand Opening" will not occur until this coming Saturday, December 13, Zaxby's will continue to serve hungry customers all week. Saturday activities will include a visit from Santa, 2p.m. – 5p.m.

The very first Zaxby's opened in 1990, here in Georgia, in Statesboro.

Currently, Zaxby's is known throughout fifteen states as "an alternative to fast-food."

"This particular location stands on a former business park and is currently in an active redevelopment area. We are glad Zaxby's shares our vision and have looked forward to their opening," said Rusty Warner, City of Norcross Economic Development Director.

State-of-the-art everything- including a 100+ variety soda fountain
